SENIORS

Charles Pardue

President

A good student and friend is "Rawhide" Pardue And an excellent president his five years through.

Jean Powers

Vice President

A nut with hope and ambition as well That someday she will pop Out of her shell.

Doris Jones

Secretary

An efficient person whose advantage lies In that "Come hither" look in her laughing eyes.

Mary Clement

Treasurer

Beauty and brains seldom come in a pair, But a classmate like Mary is very rare.

Valedictorian

1946

Mary Lewis Moore

A sincere friend in sun and shade; We're thankful for this friend we've made.

Preston Salyer

Tall, dark, handsome, and gay,
A good catch for a girl any day.

Mary Virginia Carico

Carefree and gay with a bit of a song, Make "Susie" a friend
we'll remember long.

Anna Lee Rider

A girl to turn to when you're in need, An excellent student, a friend, indeed.

Bill Salyers

His winsome smile and raven curls Make him a hit with all the girls.

Alma Powers

A studious young lady with knowledge galore Yet still adding facts to her bountiful store.

Bobby Marshall

Conservative, modest, polite, yes,
But a friend to help you along, no less.

Ted Stewart

An open hand, an empty shoe,
And a hope to make the day go through.

Margie Blevins

Dark brown curls
and a winning way, Make Margie dear to us each day.

Guyanne Dotson

A traditional giggle, a nod of the head,
A dance, a song, and music--that's "Red."

Glen Arney

No fidget and no reformer, just A calm observer of ought and must.

Dorothy Lawson

A smile, a cheerful word, a jest Make Dorothy one of the very best.

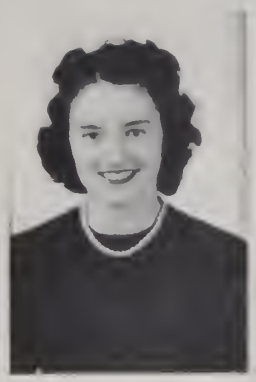
1946



Virgie Couch

With a smile and a wink and a turned up nose, She shall have laughter wherever she goes.

Jack Hartsock

Lives there a man with soul so dead Who has never turned his head and said,
"Hubba, hubba, hubba!"

Ruby Linkous

It's hard to believe she's the laziest one When basketball or dancing's begun.

Lorene Rose

Still water runs deep, so it is told,
And Lorene's friendship is worth pure gold.

Hubert Longmire

Because of his art
and humorous way, We'll hear a lot about "Hans" someday.

Thelma Kilgore

She's a brilliant,
fun-loving lass,
And voted "best-all-around" of our class.

Rhex Edwards

Dashing and handsome, the right sort of guy, With a smile and a greeting when he passes by.

Kate Thomas

Her deep brown eyes are mirrors to A kind heart that is always true.

Wilma McConnell

She's the quiet type;
yet, She's a friend we won't forget.

Opal Odle

Well named, this gay, attractive lass;
The treasured jewel of our class.

Bob Robinette

A geniune Casanova with a smile for every lass, We are proud of this ex-sailor, a member of our class.

Dorothy Smith

She always remembered the things we forgot; Good, dependable, sweet
--that's "Dot."

Maud O'Dell

A great big orchid for a tiny lass Who was voted "cutest" in our class.

Stewart Kelly

A mixture of Cupid
and Dorothy Dix, There isn't a problem that he can't fix - Except in business arithmetic.

Jackie Bray

Small in stature,
cute, and smart;
She holds a big place in our heart.

Frances Rose

A blond newcomer, friendly, neat,
Just to know her is a treat.

Jack Addington

He's a "Hoover" to us, and his slow, dry wit Makes him a classmate we'll never forget.

Lucy Lundy

Reserved and quiet, but, nevertheless,
She has many friends in C. H. S.

1946

James Watson

He's blond, good looking, and we give thanks To a grand guy and classmate from Uncle Sam's ranks.

Lillian Odle

A basketball fiend with a high-scoring art
And a cute little smile that goes to your heart.

[illegible] Vardiver

A strawberry blond with a smile that sends A friendly greeting to all her friends.

Fannie Martin

Valedictorian

Success is sure to come her way Because she's at the top to stay.

Peggy Martin

Salutatorian

A prompt observer of her duty;
She's the Senior Class's beauty.
